

Ballin Temple Nature Club

The Nature Club is for people to enjoy and protect the river, woods and walks at Ballin Temple.

Basic membership gives individual access. You may park at the Cantry Bog shed and walk on the designated pathways. Please register your license plate number with us. Basic membership is € 100 per year. A basic day ticket is € 20.

Premium membership allows family access, and additional activities, such as dogs, horse riding, cycling, camping, fishing. It also offers a 10% discount on accommodation. Premium membership is € 250 per year. A premium day ticket is € 50.

Please note that Ballin Temple can be a dangerous place. Even walking can be hazardous because there is no paving and natural obstacles often present themselves. The river in particular can be dangerous – it has strong, unpredictable currents, the banks can slip away and the water is close to the path. Wooded areas are subject to falling branches and other debris. Animal habitats leave hidden holes which can twist ankles. Some of our neighbours have heavy agricultural and industrial equipment which may be driven on adjoining paths and roads. Some activities are dangerous in themselves and may cause hazards to others – such as tree felling, fishing (eg a hook in the face), horses, dogs, cycling, etc. Please be careful and ensure that children in your care are protected.
